

Spring 2 Collective Worship Planner

Week beginning	Big Question	Monday (Led by Mrs McArdle)	Tuesday (Singing)	Wellbeing Wednesday	Thursday (Visitor)	Celebration Friday	Links to British Values/ school values
19 th Feb	Are rules important?	School rules assembly		Online Safety Session	Rev Daleen		Respect for Others: "Are rules important?" links to the British value of respect as it encourages understanding the significance of rules in maintaining order and respecting societal norms.
26 th Feb	How can we connect with our faith or spirituality during Lent?	Sycamore Leading Lent Worship		Flashback 4	Paul Adnit	 St David's Day
4 th Mar		Lent		My Happy Mind	Rev Michele	Mother's Day Worship
11 th Mar	Why is forgiveness important during Lent?	Lent		Flashback 4	Rev Daleen		Democracy and Rule of Law: Reflecting on the question "How can we connect with our faith or spirituality during Lent?" supports the British value of the rule of law by encouraging individuals to explore their faith within the framework of established beliefs and practices.
18 th Mar		Lent		My Happy Mind	Rev Gilbert
25 th Mar	What do the events of Holy Week teach us about sacrifice, resilience, and the importance of hope in the face of challenges?	Palm Sunday led by Larch	Maundy Thursday led by Rowan	Good Friday led by Willow	Easter Sunday led by Beech		Tolerance and Inclusion: The question "Why is forgiveness important during Lent?" aligns with the British value of tolerance as it promotes forgiveness, understanding, and inclusivity within the context of Lenten observances.  Individual Liberty: Exploring "What do the events of Holy Week teach us about sacrifice, resilience, and the importance of hope in the face of challenges?" relates to the British value of individual liberty by encouraging personal reflection on faith and the freedom to interpret the lessons of Holy Week.