

Summer 1 2024 Collective Worship Planner

Week Beginning	Big Question	Monday (Led by Mrs McArdle)	Tuesday (Singing worship)	Wellbeing Wednesday	Thursday (visitor)	Celebration Family Friday	Links to British values/ School values
15 th April	Why it's important to share the Good News with others? L U K E 2 4 : 3 6 B - 4 8	World Art Day led by Mrs Baptie		Online Safety Session	Rev Adam		Democracy: Engaging in discussions about sharing the Good News, embodying compassion, prioritizing values, and embracing diversity reflects democratic principles of inclusion, freedom of expression, and collective decision-making.
22 nd April		Eco Warriors	St Georges Day 	My Happy Mind	Janet Grime
29 th April	How can we embody Jesus' compassion and care for others in our daily lives? J O H N 1 0 : 1 1 - 1 8	Good Shepherd		My Happy Mind	Inset day		Individual Liberty: Encouraging individuals to share the Good News, embody compassion, prioritize values, and embrace diversity respects their autonomy and freedom to express beliefs and values authentically.
6 th May	Do we prioritise one school value over others, or do we uphold the belief that all values carry equal weight?	May Day	Worship led by Mrs McArdle	Flashback 4	Paul Adnitt		Mutual Respect and Tolerance: Sharing the Good News, embodying compassion, prioritizing values, and embracing diversity all promote mutual respect for diverse beliefs, perspectives, and identities, fostering tolerance and understanding within communities.
13 th May		Class worships. SATs week
20 th May	How does the spirit of Pentecost inspire us to embrace diversity, unity, and empowerment within our community and beyond?	Pentecost Worship led by Larch Class		My Happy Mind	BARROWFEST Paul Adnitt		Rule of Law: The principles of sharing the Good News, embodying compassion, prioritizing values, and embracing diversity contribute to upholding moral and ethical standards that ensure justice, fairness, and social cohesion within society.